

15th Annual ZOO Research Symposium

Antwerp Zoo Centre for Research and Conservation

7 December 2022

Location: Darwin Hall, ZOO Antwerpen & Online

9:30 Welcome with coffee, registration

10:00	Zjef Pereboom	Welcome and Introduction
10:20	Jacob Willie	Linking socioeconomic change to hunter behaviour: A case study of reciprocal environmental agreements in Cameroon
10:40	Peter Galbusera	Calling for a re-assessment of conservation policy on hybrids
11:00	Jordi De Raad	Biobanking in zoos in support of species conservation
11:20	Laurens Van Mulders	Feline Chronic Kidney Disease: From Small to Big Cats
11:40	Francis Vercammen	SARS-CoV-2 in Antwerp hippos

12:00 Free lunch (incl. vegetarian sandwiches)

13:00	Marina Salas	Animal Welfare Science at the CRC
13:30	Catherina De Zilva	The effects of crowding on the social behaviour of zoo-housed bonobos (online presentation)
13:50	Daan Laméris	Judging the Bonobo's Book by Its Cover: Application of Qualitative Behavioural Assessment

*14:10 coffee + Poster session

15:10	Pralle Kriengwatana	Eavesdropping on Emotions: Using vocalisations to measure positive welfare in birds
15:30	Berenice Quintanilla	Chopped vs whole food presentation: a case study in a mixed-exhibit of Mexican military macaws and red-billed curassows
15:50	Sarah Depauw	Moving forward to indicators of positive animal welfare when evaluating nutritional changes: an example in giraffes
16:10	Philippe Helsen	Connected by signal, connected for life? Assessing Bluetooth signal transmission between cinereous vultures to discover potential breeding pairs

16:30 End of the symposium